HORSES CHANGED

Longest Drag of Season Is Ridden by Warrenton Hunt

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WARRENTON VA. December 15—
The longest drag of the season, being ignalized by the changing of horses, or fresh mounts about midway of the un, was ridden this afternoon by a trige number of huntsmen and two untswomen. The start was at Canton Bail Gate, and finished at G. R. Tompkins place, making the run, six alies in length, when the usual drag s about three-miles.
The course was well selected and ay through well-sodded fields, but with many high fences and stiff jumps, ir. J. P. Evans, acting master of the lounds, led the riders, and T. F. Gallovay, riding whip, carried the hounds veil in the lead all the way. The only acies riding were Mrs. F. A. B. Postman and Mrs. Peter Labousse, both of whom finished well up with the lounds.
The men riding were Messrs, J. K.

Elberfeld Is Anxious to Get Away from New York.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., December 15.—
While the writers around the major league circuit are filling space. relative to a prospective trade for "Kid" Elberfeld, who will not play with the New York Americans during the senson of 1909, fans here are wondering why Manager Stallings has held the price up so stiff for the services of this well-known player. There is no doubt but Elberfeld wants to get away from New York. Manager Stallings knows this, for Elberfeld has so advised him, but the wonder here is that Farrell holds the price up on Elberfeld so high when he knows nothing as to the condition of the player's foot, which was spiked last April and injured again later during the season when he was managing the Yankees.

positive the price the New York team positive the price the New York team is holding on his services is too stiff, for none of the prospective buyers have the slightest idea as to what he will be able to do on the diamond next season. He is anxious that the matter will find priced at $18.00 anywhere in town. The difference you will find can only be in their favor; certainly the tailoring, fit and style, Burk-tailored, each and every one, with features of merit absolutely unobtainable in clothes of other makers. The underprice purchase of the woolens contained in the suits explains the reason of this extraordinary bargain offering. Strictly pure wool cassimeres, tweeds and cheviots in the very nobbiest and popular colors and shapes. Suit bargains never before equaled at this stage of the season. Emphatically $18.00 values. Your unrestricted choice of an immense range at only $12.50 emphatically unprecedented right at the height of the season. High-class worsteds, cassimeres and tweeds in the very nobbiest patterns and shades-plenty of the now so popular "green effects" and the neater effects in mixtures and broken plaids-as well as dark navy blue serges or black thibets. Equally notable as the fabrics is the tailoring that has been applied, being the identical character as our much costlier ranges. You will not find their equals offered under $20 anywhere in town—so fit men of $15.00 any size or build,.....

Special Holiday Offerings Burk Suits and Overcoats at $12.50 and $15.00

At $15.00-Coming as it does right before the holiday season, this opportunity to procure Burk-tailored, good Overcoats at so moderate an outlay must attract widespread notice and response. A big aggregation of newest, correct Overcoat fashions-handsome fancy Overcoats in nobby tweeds, cassimeres and cheviots—dressy black and Oxford gray "Chesterfield" Overcoats—nobby English Box Overcoats of high-class tan covert and black thibet—the ever popular and practical Raincoat, in big variety of genuine "Priestly" Cravenette cloths—each and every one in the big range Burk-tailored, with features of distinctive superiority—garments impossible to equal $15.00 under $20 anywhere in town—only...... under $20 anywhere in town-only.....

Tom Longboat; the Indian runner, who had been led by a yard or more nearly all the way, won the Marathon race at Madison Square Garden.

The race was hard fought from start to finish, and kept the thousands or spectators in wild excitement. At twenty-five miles Dorando was leading by two yards, A moment before Lonaboat had made a remarkable spurt and put himself on an even footing with the little Italian. Dorando immediately regained first position, and the men were fighting it out in the twanty-sixth mile, with Dorando in the lead but visibly weaker. The chances or Longboat appeared to improve in the second and third laps. In the fourth lap, while the crowd was orying itself hoarse, both men slackened perceptibly. Then, suddenly, Dorando staggered and dropped. Longboat finished alone. His time for the distance of twenty-six miles 385 yards was 2:45:05 2-5.

alone. His time for the distance of twenty-five hard and fast rounds to a twenty-six miles 385 yards was 2:45:05 2-5.

Gruelling Race.

The time was 35 3-5 seconds slower than the mark established by Dorando when he defeated Hayes over the same track three weeks ago. It was a gruelling race for nearly twenty-five and one-half miles, with the Italian generally in the lead, but occasionally overhauled by a wonderful spurt on the part of the Indian.

The men started away at a brisk cilip, Dorando at once establishing a lead of nearly two yards. Longboat had won the pole position and pushed the other so hard in the first few milus of the race that at the end of the five miles the Dorando-Hayes record for the distance had been beaten by nearly a minute, Later the men slowed up, and for many miles they kept the same relative position in slower time. Then Longboat spurted and repeated thuse tactics until they had a plainly syldent effect upon the latial normand nevertheless, held his advantage until the last lap of the fourteenth mile, when Longboat took the lead and increased his pace a little. He finished the fourteen miles one minute and sixteen and two-fifth seconds ahead of the Dorando-Hayes record.

Longboat's effort proved to be spasmodic, and Dorando easily passed him in the fifteenth mile.

Longboat Fatigues.

Longboat showed signs of fatigue in the seventeenth mile, but kept on doggedly within striking distance of the Halian. In the twentleth mile Longboat shot shead and dropped into a natural lope, which kept him in the lead for five laps. Then Dorando, amid wild cheers, forged ahead.

Again, in the twenty-third mile the Indian made a sensational sprint and gained the lead, In the second lap of the twenty-fourth, Dorando regained the advantage. Both men then moved more slowly and showed weariness. If the boginning of the twenty-sixth Longboat sprinted and the litalian went to the rear. In the middle of the mile and when a quarter of a lap behind. Dorando fell to the track and it was necessary to pick him up and carry him to his drassing and the strength of the strength of the strength of the will and when a quarter of a lap behind.

It has come to light now that "Muggsy" McGraw, the foxey little manager of the New York Glants, who has just finished one three-cornered deal, is now the principal in another.

That all hands will be satisfied would seem to go with the swap, which runs something like this: McGraw wants a good pitcher, Brooklyn wants Dahlen as manager and Boston wants a man to fill up the gap left by Dahlen.

Herzog goes to Brooklyn for McIntyre, and thence to Boston for Dahlen. And at that it seems a good swap Herzie is a good batter, heady and as good as Larry Doyle at second in almost every respect. He has also wen many friends among the fans of Gotlam, and it would be a toss-up since his last year's slowing as cowhich would be chosen for the team. With Herzog fn Boston it would seem to take a big kink out of the knot that McGraw has to untie as to which would play, second.

If the deal goes through it would seem that all hands should be satisfied, as the Glants get a pitcher, and a good one, the Trolley-Dodgers get a manager, and the Beaneaters get a good infelder, as good, if not better, than Dahlen.

Will Test Law.

NEW ORLEANS, December 15.—To make a test of the Locke antiracing law the New Orleans Jockey Club will open a horse-race meet at the City Park track to-morrow. It is said that old style bookmaking will be started.

Police officials made plans to-night to enforce the Locke law, which prohibits bookmaking, and it is said that the turrmen may discontinue the races after to-morrow, but will carry the case into the courts. The outcome of this case will determine whether racing is to be resumed on the old-time scale or discontinued altogether.

"Ragged Robin."

Chaunesy Olcott is keeping up his reputation for giving the public clean, wholesome Irish plays, in his presentation of "Ragged Robin." The penular comedian has never yet appeared in a performance in which there was the slightest suggestion of vulgarity or indecency, and his hold on the Irish people is due to the fact that never once has there been a character introduced in one of his plays that rould in any way be looked upon as a caricature of the Irish race. Mr. Olcott have a splendid budget of songs composed for this new performance, and as he sings as sweetly as ever, they will be a delightful musical treat. Chauncey Olcott comes to the Academy next Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee.
